

Final Exam

Answer the following questions. Use complete sentences and answer each individual part of the question you choose. Each question should take you about half a page once the text is double-spaced.

1. Describe the events of the Montgomery Bus Boycott. How did it start? How did Martin Luther King Jr. influence the nature of the protests here? What did this boycott's success show for later protests?

2. Describe Lyndon Johnson's goals surrounding the Great Society. How did his actions around the Vietnam War compete with those goals? How did this conflict of goals create bad feelings between him and the American people?

3. How did the feminist movement of the 1960s and onward start? What were some goals of this movement? How did older and younger feminists try to affect change differently, and which do you think was more effective? What backlash has the movement faced, and why?

4. How do Watergate and the Iran-Contra Affair compare to one another? Which president is associated with each scandal, and which associated president's reputation was more and less damaged? How did their response to their scandal differ, and how did this impact their reputational damage?