

Interviewee Selection & Question Development Rubric

Criteria	Failing	Acceptable	Good	Excellent
Interviewee 4 pts	Selected person has no credentials in dealing with ethical dilemmas. OR no person identified. 0 pts	Selected person has vague or remote credentials in dealing with ethical dilemmas. 2 pts	Selected person has experience and credentials in dealing with ethical dilemmas in health care. 3 pts	Selected person has abundance of current experience and credentials in dealing with ethical dilemmas in health care. 4 pts
Questions 4 pts	Fewer than 10 questions developed. No logical flow to the questions. Questions not drawing out information from person interviewed. 1 pt	Ten questions developed with some logical flow to conversation evident with limited information asked through closed questioning. 2 pts	Ten questions developed with logical flow leading to conversational style drawing out information. 3 pts	More than 10 questions developed to provoke a thoughtful conversation using open-ended questions. 4 pts
Ethical/ Legal elements 2 pts	No concepts of ethical or legal considerations evident in questions. 0 pts	One concept of ethical or legal considerations evident in questions. 1 pt	Two concepts of ethical or legal considerations evident in questions. 1.5 pts	Multiple ( $\geq 3$ ) concepts of ethical or legal considerations evident in questions. 2 pts