Introduction

The Quran is the central religious text of Islam and Muslims believe that it contains the word of God, as revealed to the Prophet Muhammad by the angel Gabriel over a roughly twenty-two year period from 610 to 632 CE. Scholars believe the Quran was put into writing a few decades after the death of Muhammad in 632 CE.

To understand the context and significance of the Quran, one must see it as the final revelation in a series of revelations going back to Adam, Abraham, Moses, Noah, and Jesus. Therefore, the Quran can be considered the third revelation of the Abrahamic-Monotheistic Religions, with the first revelation being the Torah, and the Second being the New Testament.

Although the Quran contains many similarities to Judaism and Christianity, such as the emphasis on the same one God, there are also key differences. The Quran clearly states that Jesus is not the son of God, there is no Trinity, and Christ was not resurrected, but taken from the Cross by God and escorted into Heaven.

The Quran is divided into suras (or chapters), and it is meant to be read aloud (or recited) in Arabic. As you read the following pages, try listening to the same verses on the Noble Quran website.

Sura 1- The Opening

- “Praise be to God, Lord of the worlds!
The Compassionate, the Merciful!
King on the Day of Reckoning!
Thee only do we worship, and to Thee do we cry for help.
Guide Thou us on the straight path,
The path of those to whom Thou has been gracious;
with whom Thou art not angry, and who go not astray.”

Sura 2- The Cow

- “Whether you warn the infidels or not they will not believe.”
- “There are some who say, ‘We believe in God, and in the latter day:’ Yet they are not believers!”

These are they who have purchased error at the price of guidance....They are like one who [makes] a fire, and when it [has] thrown its light on all around him...God taketh away their light and leave them in darkness – they cannot see! – Deaf, dumb, blind; therefore they shall not retrace their steps from error!”

- “If [you are] in doubt as to that which We have sent down to Our Servant, then produce a Sura like it, and summon your witnesses, beside God, if [you] are men of truth: But if ye do it not, and never shall ye do it, then fear the Fire prepared for the infidels, whose fuel is men and stones.”
- [In the afterlife, those who believed in God] shall have wives of perfect purity, and therein shall they [live] forever.”

- “They who believed (Muslims), and they who follow the Jewish religion, and the Christians, and the Sabeites – whoever of these believeth in God and the last day, and doeth that which is right, shall have their reward with their Lord; fear shall not come upon them, neither shall they be [troubled].”

- [Whoever believes part of the Book, but denies parts] shall be sent to the most cruel of torments, for God is not regardless of what [you] do. These are they who purchase this present life at the price of that which is to come: their torment shall not be lightened, neither shall they be helped.”
